

Travelling Light Theatre Company

Casting for Vixen

This Autumn/Winter Travelling Light is delighted to be touring Vixen, an original piece by Matt Grinter, about a young girl who is turning into a fox.

Saffi is 11. She lives on an estate with her dad and she is turning into a fox. After being scratched by a vixen in the raincoat man's garden she begins to transform and dreams of running away to live with her fox family.

For ages 7+, this show will tour into schools and community centres throughout October and November 2021 before heading to traditional theatre spaces from April 2022.

We are looking for one highly skilled female performer to fill this role, aged 16-30.

This performer needs to have a high level of physical storytelling, a good level of musicality and devising skills.

Travelling Light creates outstanding professional theatre for and with young people that inspires their thinking, engages their emotions and fires their imaginations.

★★★★ 'Utterly dazzling. Rumbustious, exhilarating dance theatre.' The Guardian on Travelling Light's award-winning Boing!

Dates: 6 September – 15 November 2021

Wages: £500 per week (ITC/Equity contract)

W/c 6 September - w/c 27 September: rehearsals

W/c 4 October: Production week

W/c 11 October - w/c 8 November: touring schools, community centres

We are actively encouraging applications from a diverse range of actors and those that have lived experience of growing up on an estate. Moreover, we are keen to meet those who are excited by providing high quality work in schools and non traditional settings.

This is a small scale tour, requiring some early starts and some antisocial hours - please only apply if you have a Bristol Base.

Auditions

Thu 27 May & Tue 29 & Wed 30 June - at Travelling Light, Barton Hill Settlement, Bristol.
